

National Minorities Development & Finance Corporation (NMDFC)

Official authority

Ministry of Minority Affairs, Government of India.

About NMDFC

NMDFC was incorporated on 30 September 1994 to promote economic and developmental activities for backward sections among notified minority communities, with preference to occupational groups and women.

Target communities

Muslims, Christians, Sikhs, Buddhists, Parsis and Jains.

Income limits

Credit Line 1: annual family income up to ₹3,00,000. Credit Line 2: annual family income up to ₹8,00,000, subject to current NMDFC rules.

Main schemes

1. Term Loan Scheme – income-generating businesses and self-employment.
2. Education Loan Scheme – job-oriented technical and professional courses in India and abroad.
3. Micro-Finance Scheme – credit for Self Help Group members, especially minority women.
4. Virasat Scheme – working and fixed capital for artisans and craftspersons.
5. Marketing Assistance – exhibitions and buyer-seller activities for artisan products.

Indicative assistance

Term loans: up to ₹20 lakh under Credit Line 1 and ₹30 lakh under Credit Line 2. Education loans: up to ₹20 lakh for domestic courses and ₹30 lakh for courses abroad. Microfinance: up to ₹1 lakh per SHG member under Credit Line 1 and ₹1.5 lakh under Credit Line 2. Virasat: up to ₹10 lakh. Rates vary by scheme and beneficiary; verify current rates.

Implementing agencies

Schemes are generally implemented through State Channelising Agencies nominated by State Governments/UT Administrations, with some programmes using banks, NGOs and SHGs.

Common documents

Income certificate, residence proof, minority/religious certificate, identity proof, bank details, project report, educational marksheets or quotations as applicable.

How to apply

Visit the official NMDFC website, identify the relevant scheme, contact the State Channelising Agency, obtain the current form and checklist, submit documents and project details, and complete the agency's assessment process.

Official sources

NMDFC: <https://www.nmdfc.org/>

Schemes: <https://www.nmdfc.org/nmdfcschemes>

Downloads: <https://www.nmdfc.org/schemeforms>

Target groups: <https://www.nmdfc.org/target-groups>

FAQ: <https://nmdfc.org/uploads/files/FAQ-FINALpdf-fd0709dda41b44f18057e80b5ab30960.pdf>

Disclaimer

This is a prepared educational summary, not an official notification or application form. Loan limits, interest rates, eligibility, security and repayment conditions may change. Confirm current details with NMDFC or the concerned State Channelising Agency.